Defendant Richard N. Outridge (“Outridge”), by and through his attorneys, Proskauer Rose LLP, states as follows for his Answer to the Complaint of plaintiff Arch Insurance Company (“Arch”), dated February 21, 2008, in the above-captioned action (the “Complaint”):

1. Denies each and every allegation contained in paragraph 1 of the Complaint, except admits that Arch issued an excess directors, officers and corporate liability insurance policy to Refco, Inc. (“Refco”) for the period from August 11, 2005 to August 11, 2006 (the “Arch Policy”) and that numerous lawsuits and investigations have been initiated against Refco and certain individuals, and refers to the Underlying Matters for the allegations contained therein. Admits that Arch purports to seek a declaration from this Court resolving the dispute in their favor; and avers that Arch is entitled to no relief.
2. Denies each and every allegation contained in paragraph 2 of the Complaint, except admits, upon information and belief, that Arch’s first lawsuit in the Supreme Court of the State of New York, New York County seeking a declaration regarding the parties’ rights and responsibilities under the Arch Policy was dismissed by Justice Freedman in an opinion dated February 20, 2007, and refers to Justice Freedman’s opinion for the contents thereof.
3. Denies any involvement or culpability relating to the allegations of wrongdoing contained in paragraph 3 of the Complaint; otherwise denies knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 3 of the Complaint, except admits, upon information and belief, that three Refco executives, Phillip R. Bennett (“Bennett”), Robert C. Trosten (“Trosten”) and Santo C. Maggio (“Maggio”), have pled guilty to various criminal charges, and refers to Justice Freedman’s opinion for the contents thereof.

4. Denies knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 4 of the Complaint, except admits that Arch avers that the Court has jurisdiction to resolve an actual controversy between Arch and the Defendants pursuant to the New York Declaratory Judgment Act, CPLR § 3001.

5. Denies knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 5 of the Complaint, except admits that Arch avers that the Court has in personam jurisdiction over Outridge pursuant to CPLR §§ 301 and 302 and admits that Outridge is a former officer of Refco's affiliated entity and that he transacted business in New York or otherwise engaged in a sufficient course of conduct in the State to make the exercise of personal jurisdiction proper, and admits that Outridge has an ongoing contractual relationship with Arch, and admits that Outridge, among other defendants, has sought coverage under the Arch Policy in connection with the Underlying Matters and that Arch has denied coverage, and refers to the Arch Policy for the contents thereof, and admits that numerous lawsuits and investigations have been initiated against Refco and certain individuals, and refers to the Underlying Matters for the allegations contained therein.

6. Denies knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 6 of the Complaint, except admits that Arch avers that venue is appropriate pursuant to CPLR § 503.

7. Denies knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 7 of the Complaint, except admits, upon information and belief, that Arch is an insurance company.
